

Storage Access Functions and Task Management

This part of the Application Programmer's documentation describes functions relating to access to external storage systems (including Adabas), as well as task management functions.

This information is organized under the following headings:

- Adabas & External Storage Access Functions
- Task Management