

Overview

Entire Operations provides the System Administrator with various special global, control and recovery functions.

Note:

Some of these functions should be used only as recovery for uncommon situations.