

Natural Connection - Overview

Natural Connection provides an access method required for transferring data, reports, Natural objects and sources from a Natural mainframe computer to a PC. The prerequisite for the use of Natural Connection is Entire Connection.

Related topic:

For information on Entire Connection, refer to the relevant documentation.

The following topics are covered in this documentation:

- Main Functionality Describes the main functionality that is relevant for the mainframe.
- Installing Natural Connection Describes how to install Natural Connection on a mainframe.
- Preparing to Use Natural Connection Describes the tasks that must be accomplished to allow download and upload.
- Natural Statements Describes the Natural statements that are relevant for processing information between the mainframe and the PC by using Natural Connection.
- Processing Work Files Describes restrictions on the use of work file attributes, the support of work file formats and the impact of READ loops.
- NTCPC Utility Describes the NTCPC utility with which you can download and upload objects between the mainframe and the PC.
- Download and Upload Modules Describes the Natural Connection modules available for downloading and uploading data.