

Review Natural Monitor - Overview

Review Natural Monitor is a monitoring facility that provides response time and user activity information about Natural applications running under the TP monitor CICS. The product includes a User Profile System which is an administrative facility used for defining access privileges to Review.

The Review Natural Monitor documentation contains all information required to install and use Review Natural Monitor.

- Installing Review Natural Monitor Explains how to install Review Natural Monitor under the operating systems OS/390 and VSE/ESA.
- Getting Started with Review Explains how to start and end a Review Natural Monitor session and describes the system-wide commands that may be used in Review Natural Monitor.
- Accessing Review Natural Monitor Explains how to access Natural Monitor.
- Using Response Time Reports Explains how to use response time reports.
- Active User Information Explains how to use active user information.
- Technical Information Explains how to display environmental information and history session information.
- Administrative Functions Explains how to administer Natural Monitor.
- Function Codes and Commands Gives an overview of the function codes and commands available within Natural Monitor.
- LDA View Description Describes the fields of the local data area (LDA) L-NMHIST.
- Natural Monitor Repository File Includes a copy of the repository file.