

BUS

This command is for Mainframes only. It performs the same function as the Natural system command SYSBUS which is no longer available.

BUS
------------

This command is used to invoke the function Buffer Usage Statistics of the SYSTP utility. The SYSTP Utility documentation is located in the Natural Utilities documentation.

This function provides information on the buffers allocated for the current Natural session, their sizes, and the actual buffer space being used.