

CLEAR

CLEAR

This command clears the source work area. It can be used if a new program is to be created and there is another object in the source work area.