

LIST XREF

This command displays all active cross-reference data for the current library.

For details see "List XREF For Natural" located in the Predict documentation.

Note:

This command is only available if Predict has been installed.