

Web Technology - Overview

This document provides an overview of the Natural web technologies and a short summary of their functions.

The following topics are covered:

- Natural Web Interface The Natural Web Interface is a link between a Web Server (more precisely: HTTP server) and your Natural environment.
- XML Toolkit The XML Toolkit enables developers to process XML documents within Natural.