

Working in the Terminal Emulation Screen

In the terminal emulation screen, you can use both mouse and keyboard. To change the cursor position, use the standard keys (e.g., TAB or the arrow keys) or the mouse. To use a host function key, press the terminal emulation key assigned to this function key. To simulate the Enter key, double-click at any position in the terminal emulation screen. Otherwise, you can use your keyboard to enter data as normal.