

Messages and Codes - Overview

This documentation covers the following topics:

- Introduction      Contains the messages and codes returned by the Entire System Server, together with an explanation of the error text. Information concerning remedial action is also provided where appropriate.
- System Messages      Lists the system messages, together with their explanation and the action required.
- Console Messages      Lists the console messages, together with their explanation and the action required.