Selecting Options

To select an option

- Enter the identifying number in the Command line and press Enter.
- or
- Alternatively, you can position the cursor on the line in the Main Menu where the option appears and press Enter.

Use one of these methods, as well, for the submenus, such as System Administration, Reports and Cross References.

The sections Network Maintenance to Reporting describe each menu option in detail, except the options System Administration Services and Import/Export. The Help option is described in the subsection Online Help Facility of the present section.
